“The Gift of Love” #526

Though I may speak with bravest fire, and have the gift to all inspire, and have not love, my words are vain, as sounding brass, and hopeless gain.

Though I may give all I possess, and striving so my love profess, but not be given by love within,
the profit soon turns strangely thin.

Come, Spirit, come, our hearts control, our spirits long to be made whole. Let inward love guide every deed;
by this we worship, and are freed.

“We Come as Guests Invited” #386 (vs. 1)

We come as guests invited
when Jesus bids us dine, his friends on earth united
to share the bread and wine;
the bread of life is broken,
the wine is freely poured for us, in solemn token of Christ our dying Lord.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 26:17-30

“Take My Life” #609 (vs. 1, 2, 3, 6)

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord to thee.
Take my moments and my days;
let them flow in ceaseless praise,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be
swift and beautiful for thee,
swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing;
unto God my praise I bring.
Take my lips and let them be filled with messages from thee,
filled with messages from thee.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be
ever, only, all for thee,
ever, only, all for thee.

Benediction
